Focus Multimedia Licence Agreement

This Licence Agreement sets out the terms and conditions relating to the purchase and use by you of the Focus Essential software (the Software) included in this package. Please do not load the Software onto your computer unless you accept these terms.

1. By accepting this agreement, you do not become the owner of the Software, but you do have the right to use the Software in accordance with this agreement.

2. The Software must not be installed on more than one computer at any one time but it may be installed, on a temporary replacement or a subsequent computer, providing the Software is first removed from the original computer.

3. Unauthorised copying, lending or resale under any scheme is strictly prohibited.

4. You agree to use your best efforts to take all reasonable steps to protect the Software, from unauthorised use, illegal reproduction or illicit distribution.

5. Focus Multimedia warrants for a period of ninety days from the date of purchase of this Software that under normal use, the material of the CD-ROM will not prove defective and that the Software is properly recorded on the CD-ROM. If during the ninety day period, a defect should appear, you may return the Software to Focus Multimedia for replacement without charge and this is your sole right with respect to such a defect.

6. Focus Multimedia warrants that the Software will carry out the functions described on the packaging. The Software has been designed for a wide variety of functions and uses and Focus Multimedia is not in a position to predetermine what you will try to do with it.

7. The sole liability of Focus Multimedia in respect of the Software is as set out in paragraphs 5 and 6, and Focus Multimedia will not be responsible for any direct, incidental or consequential damages, such as, but not limited to, loss of profits or contracts, suffered by the purchaser.

8. You agree that regardless of the form of any claim you may have, that Focus Multimedia's liability for any damages to you or any other party shall not exceed the purchase price paid by the first purchaser of the Software.

9. This Licence Agreement is to be governed by and interpreted in accordance with, the Laws of England and Wales. Any terms or conditions of this Agreement found to be unenforceable will be deleted, but will not affect the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(For your ease of use we strongly recommend that you print out the manual prior to using product).

Accessing the online manual:
To view the online manual you need to have acrobat reader 4.05 installed on your system.

To install Acrobat Reader 4.05:
1. Place the CD-ROM in your drive and the CD should automatically run. Exit the installation if it begins.
2. Click on your START MENU and select RUN.
3. Type D:\MANUAL\AR405ENG and press ENTER. (NB: If your CD-ROM drive is not D, then type the letter associated with your drive - e.g.; E: F: etc).
4. Follow any instructions that appear on the screen.

To view the online manual:
1. Place the CD-ROM in your drive and the CD should automatically run. Exit the installation if it begins.

2. Click on your START MENU and select RUN.
3. Type D:\MANUAL\MAKEUP.PDF and press ENTER. (NB: If your CD-ROM drive is not D, then type the letter associated with your drive - e.g.; E: F: etc).

Error: Cannot find the file (or one of it's components). Make sure the path and file name are correct and that all required libraries are available.

This problem occurs if you enter the wrong drive letter in one of the installation commands above. ie; If you entered D:\SETUP.EXE when your CD-ROM drive letter is E. To find out the letter of your CD-ROM drive, double click on MY COMPUTER, then find your CD-ROM icon. This will have a letter after it, this is your CD-ROM drive letter. Replace D: with your letter, e.g. H:\SETUP.EXE

Error: Wrong Screen Mode (800x600, High Colour)

If the wrong screen mode is being used then this advice is displayed. Change to the correct screen mode by selecting START, then SETTINGS, then CONTROL PANEL, then double clicking on DISPLAY. In the display screen select the SETTINGS tab. Select the SCREEN AREA option move the slider to 800x600 and in the colour palette section, select 'High Colour, 16bit'. Click OK then try again. Sometimes you may be asked to specify a monitor type when doing this. This is because the monitor wasn't selected when selected your operating system was installed. If you are in double, speak to the manufacturer of your PC.

Error: Stream write error

This error will occur if the installation program has problems installing the files. This normally appears if your hard disk has run out of space. Please remove some programs and re-install the product.
